A MAZE. Awards 2023

Berlin, December 05, 2022

Terms about the regulations for the "A MAZE. Awards"

Valid for the A MAZE. Awards 2023

All Participants of the A MAZE. Awards (following named Contest) are subject to these Conditions of Participation and all applicable laws and regulations. Before entering the Competition all Participants shall carefully read these Conditions of Participation and agree without limitation or qualification.

If Participants do not agree to these Conditions of Participation without limitation or qualification they may not enter the Competition.

Organizer reserves the right to dismiss and/or disqualify at any time with immediate effect any Participant who tampers with the operation of the Competition or Competition web site or violates the Conditions of Participation or any other applicable laws and regulations.

§ 1 Organizer

The A MAZE. Awards (following named Contest) is being organized by A MAZE. GmbH (following named Organizer) to be held during the A MAZE./ Berlin Festival May 10 - 13, 2023 in Berlin, Germany and Online (following named Festival).

§ 2 Contest

(1) The A MAZE. Awards choose the best works in five categories "THE MOST AMAZING AWARD", "HUMAN HUMAN MACHINE AWARD", "LONG FEATURE AWARD", "DIGITAL MOMENT AWARD" and "EXPLORER AWARD" of the year. The prizes are awarded once a year and are valid only in conjunction with the respective year.

(2) The A MAZE. Award is open to works developed for common or uncommon digital platforms (PC, Mac, Linux, Mobile, ...) and playful installations, performanes, experiences or physical games, which include technology e.g. in form of wearable interfaces. Pure analog works won't get reviewed.

§ 3 Judges

The Organizer selects an international Selection Committee and Jury for the Contest (following named Jury). Members of the Selection Committee are not allowed to vote on Works, which they were or are part of in a meaningful way. Submitters can become part of the Selection Committee under that same condition (and therefore not voting on their own works or those of colleagues).

§ 4 Submitted Works

- (1) Works, which are submitted, must be produced under full creative freedom of the developers.
- (2) The Selection Committee reserves the right to narrow down the choices for the Jury.
- (3) The artistic director reserves the right to refuse any entry at its sole discretion.

§ 5 Decisions

The decisions of Organizer and Jury are final and binding for all Participants on all matters pertaining to the Contest.

§ 6 Access

(1) The Contest is open only to business entities and to individuals who are 16 years or older on May 10, 2023. Individuals under the age of 18 years must provide evidence of parent or legal guardian consent satisfactory to Organizer. Organizer, its parents, subsidiaries, and affiliates, and its advertising, promotion, and production agencies, as well as employees of any of the foregoing, members of such employees' immediate families (including spouse, parents, siblings, grandparents, grandchildren, step-children, step-parents and in-laws), and persons with whom such employees are domiciled, are not eligible.

(2) To enter the Contest, a Participant who is otherwise eligible under these Conditions of Participation must submit all of the following materials at any time between 00:00am on December 12th 2023 and 11:59pm (GMT+1) on January 31st 2023 (following named Entry Deadline):

1. A properly completed official entry form, located on the Contest application page Organizer's website, <http://award.amaze-berlin.de> (following named Contest Website).
2. The checked box at the conditions tab in the entry form guarantee the following requirements:
 - a) Independently Created: The Nominating Committee must be confident that the Submitted Work was created by an independent artist, according to § 4 of the Conditions of Participation.

- b) Use of Third Party Technology: Submitted Works that make use of third party game engines, middleware, or other software or technology are only eligible if the Participant has all necessary rights to present the Submitted Work.
- c) Rights: The Participant must have obtained the written permission of all persons or entities having any rights in the Submitted Work.

(3) A digital copy of the work has to be submitted by uploading it to a public available website, posting the URL/keys in the entry form. If the Submitted Work falls into the “Special platform” category, or technical reasons do not allow for a digital copy, a documentation (text, pictures and/or video) has to be uploaded instead. If the Participant chooses to send their work, they can do so, at their sole expense.

(4) Data at this URL can be updated, even after submission or Entry Deadline. However, Judges are able to judge the Submitted Work after submission – The Organizer can not guarantee, that Judges will revisit later updated versions.

(5) A non-refundable submission fee. If the Participant sends more than one entry, they have to pay a fee for each entry. (Note: The submission fee doesn't include festival tickets. Nominees only will get 2 Festival passes to the festival for free.)

(6) The Participant has to make sure that the Organizer gets enough redeem codes or free links to get access to the works, if necessary.

(7) The Participant has to make sure, in case of a nomination, to digitally or physically visit the Award ceremony on May 12, 2023, or send a representative person to accept the Award in their name.

§ 7 Nomination

(1) Each member of Selection Committee will have the option to vote on each Submitted Work and to suggest categories. Categories are chosen by the Jury.

(2) The 25 (twenty-five) works with the highest votes from all members of the Selection Committee in the Contest will qualify for the Final Voting (following named Nominee Work).
